

Cookie Policy

This website uses cookies. We use Cookies to adapt our content and advertising, to show you various functions for social media and analyze our traffic. We also share information regarding your use of our website with our partners within social media, advertising partners and partners for analysis. Our partners are able to combine our data with other data, you might have granted them access to from your use of their services.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that collect data about the user, containing letters and numbers, which are stored on your computer, smartphone, or other device you use. They can be used to improve the user's experience of, for example, a website.

Cookies are set the first time you visit a website and can be recognized the next time you visit the website. They are used to keep track of which pages you have visited, remember your language settings, or other preferences.

A used cookie does not identify the individual user, but rather only the user's device. Cookies in no way pose a threat to your device and do not access programs, apps, or personal information on your device.

Cookies can serve several purposes. For example, they can ensure that the website's functions work, optimize the design and quality of a website, provide targeted and relevant content on a website, or target advertisements for commercial purposes.

How do we use Cookies?

At Tech-huset we do not use a lot of Cookies, but they help to ensure that our online services are easier to use, allow us to see how the website is used, and enable us to provide the best service to you.

We use cookies for various purposes, which are divided into the following categories:

- Necessary cookies: Cookies that are necessary for the website to function.
- Statistical cookies: Measure traffic at Tech-huset.dk, including the number of visits, the domains visitors come from, and the pages visited on the website. They are used to optimize the design, quality, and efficiency of the website.
- Functional cookies: Technical cookies that help improve functionality and optimize the user experience, prevent misuse and irregularities, and help remember passwords and usernames on the website.
- Marketing: Marketing cookies used for commercial purposes to target specific ads to you.
- Interact with social media: It is possible to interact directly with social media, such as Facebook and Instagram.

You can change or withdraw your Cookie consent at any time. Please note your consent ID and the date when you contact us regarding change or withdrawal of your consent. Your consent applies to the following domains: www.Tech-huset.dk
